Dallas (Township 2 Range 2) is a Franklin County plantation that borders the eastern side of the Town of Rangeley. The developed area of Rangeley is right on the town line with Dallas.

Until the 1850s the name Dallas Plantation referred to a larger area that contained a total of four townships. The current Dallas Plantation, including only one township, has been legally constituted since 1895.

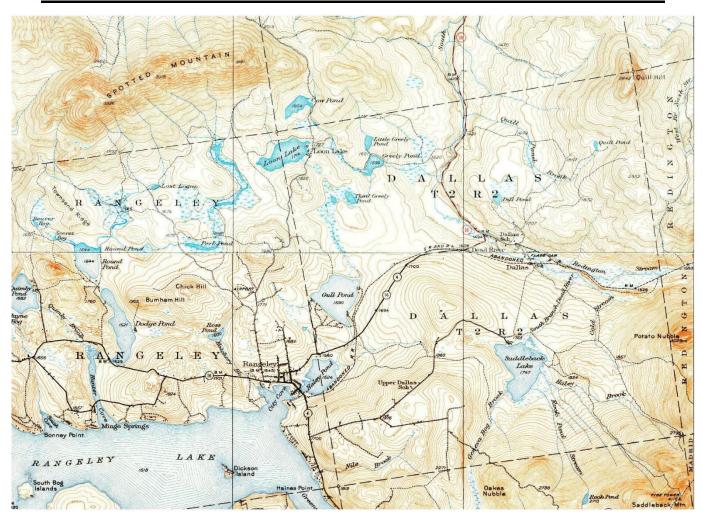

Briefly, there were three post offices in Dallas Plantation:

- 1. Dallas Post Office opened on 5 January 1910 and closed on 15 June 1926.
- 2. Loon Lake Post Office opened on 14 September 1915 and closed on 15 November 1934.
- 3. Saddleback Post Office opened on 4 August 1916 and closed on 15 November 1929.

According to the Post Route Map In 1914, there was one post office in Dallas Plantation: Dallas.

Topographic maps from the 1930s help to reveal the locations of the Loon Lake and Saddleback Post Offices. The Loon Lake Post Office was established to serve the clientele of York Camps, located there, near the northwest corner of Dallas Plantation. Similarly, the Saddleback Post Office served the clients of the Saddleback Lake Camps, down near the southeast corner of the plantation. (The top of Saddleback Mountain is just off the southeast edge of Dallas Plantation.)
